Great Things In Store for Our City

Chamber of Commerce on Job

Interesting Interview with Capt. Geo. H. Evans, Business Manager

The Gazette interviewed Capt. George H. Evans today as to the projects now afoot and planned for the immediate future by the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce. The reporter found Captain Evans in a communicative mood, and jubilant over the brilliant prospects of an early completon of matters of vital interest to the city. The facts stated in the interview are substantially as follows:

"The program of the Chamber of Commerce at its annual meeting in March last outlined a plan of activities, which are of great importance to the civic and industrial betterment of Alexandria. This plan has had the endorsement of the Board of Directors, and through the executive committee of the same organization the details are being worked out in tangible form.

Among the many things to be accomplished and to which the chamber is pledged are the folowing:

1.—City Manager Plan of City Government.

2.—The establishment of a suitable ferry between Alexandria and Fox's Ferry in co-operation with the authorities of Prince Georges county, Maryland.

3.—To provide a comfortable meeting place for organizations working in the interests of municipal government.

4.—Developing our back country resources for the benefit of our city for food and business, and to promote mutual relations beneficial to our neighbors and ourselves.

5.—To devise means for an adequate lighting system on King street, to include several blocks, and such as will make a "White Way."

Considerable progress has been made in the City Manager form of gvernment, and it is expected that, as already announced, the committee having this matter in charge will make a final report at its meeting held this afternoon at 3.30 p. m.

The Fox's Ferry project is being put in proper shape. Residents of the county across the river appear to be keen for the proposition, and the installation of a ferry should be advantageous to all interested, and fill a long felt want.

Plans for developing the back country, and for an adequate lighting system in King Street, are well in hand. It is thought that development of our back country is one of vital importance to our city and it is pointed out that with our rail facilities and deep water harbor we should be in position to make Alexandria attractive to shippers and divert a large quantity of food stuff to our own city."

The items I have enumerated"—continued Capt. Evans—"are all being energetically pressed at present, and results may be looked for at an early day. Many other matters for the good of Alexandria and its people are also under active consideration, and I believe this year will see developed many steps forward in the progress of our city."

IRISH PONDER ON PEACE PARLEY MOVE

DeValera and Colleagues Confer; May Assemble Dail Eireann

ULSTER WILL ACT

King Extracted Pledge of Conference Before His Visit to Belfast—Causes Stir in London

Dublin, June 27.—After a day of conferences between Eamonn de Valera and colleagues in connection with Premier Lloyd George's letter, it was considered probable a meeting of the Dail Eireann might be considered essential to the situation.

Mr. De Valera today attended mass and took breakfast at Black Rock College, where at one time he used to teach.

In Sinn Fein circles it is considered probable that if Mr. De Valera goes to London to confer with Prime Minister Lloyd George and Premier Craig, of Ulster, one colleague he is sure to take along will be John Joseph McKeown, member of Parliament representing Longford, who recently was tried by court martial on a charge of murdering District Inspector McGrath.

The Sunday Independent, referring to the letter, says:

"The Premier's letter is a document of the greatest political importance. It is a welcome admission of the fact that we have insisted upon—that an honorable peace in Ireland is achievable only through direct negotiations with the elected representatives. It is for our representatives to gauge the full and real significance of this appeal."

Belfast, June 27.—A meeting of the Ulster Cabinet has been called for Tuesday by Sir James Craig, the Premier, to consider the letter of Prime Minister Lloyd George inviting the leaders of North and South Ireland to a conference for the purpose of trying to bring about a reconciliation between the factions in Ireland.

The letter reached Sir James by courier this morning. Sir James replied immediately, informing Mr. Lloyd George that he was summoning a meeting of the Ulster Cabinet for Tuesday, and that he hoped to secure the attendance of all the members.

"You may rest assured no time will be lost in convening the result of our deliberations," his message concluded.

Sir James was in conference today with his chief supporters. The general feeling in Belfast is that the Ulster men will demand that the terms to be discussed at the proposed conference shall be strictly limited, especially excluding the subject of a republic.

London, June 27.—Premier Lloyd George's invitation to a conference addressed to Eamonn de Valera and Sir James Craig has caused a profound commotion in political circles, that King George consented to go to Belfast only upon the pledge that a conference free from conditions would be called to attempt conciliation.

This was at first opposed by certain Conservative members of the Cabinet led by Arthur Balfour and Austen Chamberlain, who had the support of Sir Hamer Greenwood, while Premier Lloyd George remained neutral.

But the opposition gradually weakened in the face of the alternative of putting a Crown colony government, carried out by military measures, in operation without making any effort for a peaceful settlement, and when the Dominion premiers strongly supported the conference proposal the ministerial opponents gave way and the Premier's letter was drafted

INCREASED FARE NOW IN OPERATION

New Rates on Washington-Virginia Line Effective Today

COSTS 48 CENTS TO D. C.

Price of 25 Trip Book Increased From $2.75 to $4.46 and 52 Trip Book From $4.20 to $5.58.

The increased rates on the Washington-Virginia Railway between this city and Washington became operative today. The new rates recently were granted by the Interstate Commerce Commission. It now costs forty-eight cents to make the round trip to Washington. This is an increase of ten cents over the old fare. The price of the twenty-five trip book of tickets has been increased from $2.75 to $4.20 and the price of the monthly book, which contains a total of fifty-two trips, has increased from $4.46 to $5.58.

The railway company will not change its rates in the state until the state corporation commission acts on them. The hearing is scheduled to take place July 1 before the state corporation commission in Richmond.

Hundreds of commuters who were unprepared for the increase in fare so soon were surprised today when they learned the new rate had been put into operation. Many already are patronizing the bus lines, the fare for the round trip being only thirty cents, a saving of eighteen cents on the round trip to Washington.

Trinkle Program For Tonight

Senator E. Lee Trinkle will address a mass-meeting at the opera House tonight. A most interesting program has been prepared for the occasion. Captain C. Keith Carlin will preside and Miss Lucy Graves will introduce Senator Trinkle. The well-known Ilch Orchestra will give several numbers, opening the program at 7:45 sharp. The meeting will be called to order at eight o'clock. Alexandria's favorite quartette, composed of Mrs. Harry White, Mrs. Sherman B. Fowler, Kenneth W. Ogden, and Arthur Bryant, who have kindly volunteered their services, will render the "Song of the Triton," "Ole Black Joe," and "Massa's in the Cold, Cold Ground." By special request, Mr. Ogden will sing "Where My Caravan Has Rested," as a solo. At the close of Senator Trinkle's speech the Quartette will sing a short campaign parody, especially written for tonight's event.

Mrs. Mathew O'Brien is chairman of the Program Committee; Mrs. Catherine Waller, chairman of the committee on Ushers; and Mr. J. Ed. Shin, chairman of the hall and decoration committee.

We predict an ovation for Senator Trinkle, and with the interesting program offered, an overwhelming success for the meeting. The public are all cordially invited.

Prizes Awarded

Y. M. C. A., Sewing Class Closes—

It was with considerable difficulty that the judges decided upon the prize winners among the girls who have been attending the sewing classes of the Ladies Auxiliary, at the last regular meeting of the year last Saturday afternoon, so many had done such excellent work and had show such marked improvement in the past few weeks. The awards of the Junior Chautauqua season tickets were made, however, to Miss Elizabeth Eidhammer, Miss Margaret Duncan and Miss Elizabeth Adams. Honorable mention was given also of the work of Miss Dorothy Eidhammer, Miss Agnes Cooksie, and Miss Helen Sisson. All of these girls deserve to be congratulated on the progress they have made as well as their faithfulness in attendance, and their studious application to work.

The work of these pupils is now being prepared to be placed on exhibition in some conspicuous place for a week in the near future.

ELEVEN DIE IN FIRE BELIEVE MURDER

Two Families Wiped Out When Kentucky Farmhouse is Burned

SCREAMS AND SHOTS

Clues Indicate That All Were Murdered But Motive is Not Found It Is Stated

Mayfield, Ky., June 27.—Charred beyond recognition, the bodies of 11 persons, representing two families, were found early yesterday morning in the ruins of the home of Earnest Lawrence, six miles north of this city, near Hickory Grove.

There were indications that the dead may have been the victims of foul play and at a coroner's inquest held here today a noncommittal verdict was returned.

The dead are:

Earnest Lawrence, 31, and wife, 25, and three children ranging in age from 5 years to 11 months; Otis Drew, 28, and wife, 23, and three children ranging from 4 years to 4 months, and Delmer Drew, 25. Lawrence and Otis Drew were brothers in law and the Drews were brothers.

Neighbors who were attending a picnic about a mile from the Lawrence house, a log structure of only two rooms, saw the blaze about 11:30 o'clock. Two young men the first to arrive on the scene were unable to enter the house because of the fire, but climbing a tree nearby could see the bodies lying on the floor.

An examination of the bodies showed that one of the women bore wounds that seemed to have been made by some sharp instrument. The dress of the infant which this woman is thought to have been holding in her arms was drenched with blood.

In one of the rooms where several of the bodies were lying were a revolver containing six empty shells, a shotgun, a rifle with a cartridge that had been discharged and another exploded shell nearby, a double bitted axe which was lying on the bed springs near the body of one of the men, and a large oil can which had been kept in the yard.

Particles of clothing were clinging to the bodies of the men, showing that they had not retired before they met death.

Screams of women and children and several shots were said to have been heard by neighbors shortly before the fire was discovered.

Sheriff Marion McCain said last night, after spending the day working on the case:

"The only plausible theory I have is that Lawrence, who was struck a blow on the head several years ago and since has been addicted to occasional spells, became insane. He never had shown violence when he was delirious before, however.

"We still, however, are running down every possible clue that might connect an outsider. No enemies have been found, though.

"It seems impossible that none of 11 persons in all in a house, with plenty avenues of escape would not have been awakened by the flames."

The most notable episode of the day was when the aged mother of the two married women, Mrs. Nettie Riley, appeared on the scene she almost went into hysterics and had to removed from the scene.

Local Pitcher

Roland Gaines Pitches One Inning In Big League

In the game yesterday in which Washington lost to New York by a score of 9 to 1, Roland Gaines, of this city, pitched one inning. Mogridge, McBride's star left hander, went up in the air and allowed the Yankees 16 hits. Gaines was put on the mound and pitched regular major league ball. He allowed only one hit, and that was to Meusel. John A. Dugan, sport writer for the Washington Post, says "that" from his performance, in this game, he deserves a thorough test.

TODAY'S THOUGHT — The sublime and the ridiculous are often so nearly related, that it is difficult to class them separately. One step above the sublime makes the ridiculous, and one step above the ridiculous makes the sublime again.
Thomas Paine.

Senator Trinkle Tonight

As a matter of self-interest the men and women of Alexandria ought to hear Senator Trinkle tonight at the Opera House. The best way to judge of the candidate for any public office is to hear him speak; to learn what he stands for from his own mouth. Physical characteristics play no small part in the career of a public man. The expression of his countenance, his gestures, his attitude, his dignity or lack of it, his voice, his language—all have a compelling influence with the multitude. Then there is that indefinable something called "magnetism" which has always influenced, and always will influence mankind. The voters are often actuated in their choice of candidates by their personal impressions. Looming large behind his words is the man himself. When a public character has sufficiently impressed his personality upon the electorate through the printed page, there is always a keen desire to see him, to hear him, to size him up visually, as it were.

Many of Mr. Trinkle's friends in this community listened to Mr. Tucker. They fear no comparison between the two men as candidates for the governorship of the Old Dominion, and are sincere in their invitation to Mr. Tucker's adherents to attend the meeting tonight. Whatever the viewpoint of those who hear Senator Trinkle at the Opera House, they will be treated to a candid and fearless expression of his views on the several important issues now before the electorate. Thus far in the campaign wherever the Senator has spoken he has confirmed the opinions of his friends, persuaded the doubtful, and again and again made converts to his candidacy. His appearance in Alexandria is opportune and will doubtless crystallize public opinion generally in his favor.

Confederate Park on Manassas Battlefield

The Manassas Battlefield Confederate Park is an association incorporated, and with headquarters in Washington. Congressman Moore is vice-chairman of the finance board. The inauguration of the plans for carrying out the details of this opportune memorial will take place on the Battlefield of Manassas, on the anniversary of the battle, July 21st. The Finance Board are launching a campaign to secure a fund of $50,000, half of which will cover the cost of the museum and memorial work already established, and the other half to be used in marking and laying out the field with proper monuments.

It is to be hoped that Alexandria will be suitably represented at the inauguration.

An Innovation

A Movie House in Alexandria has made what may be called a genuine innovation in his movie music. He has an automatic piano of the best make; and he has just ordered what we should call music of the best make, too! It is a mistake to think that the populace do not appreciate good music. They do, and it is the only kind that lasts with them. Forget the tabooed word "classic," and you have in the only music that is really enjoyable and enduring, a creation that invariably springs from the people themselves. The great masters of music in all countries took their themes from the folk-songs of the peasantry. No folk-songs, no music. This is why the United States has hitherto developed no national music. We had no peasantry except the slaves, and their music is the only real American music. It is, too, as classic—pardon us!—as any music of the ages, from Palestrina to Debussy. But we digress. This enterprising movie-man has ordered such music as it is a delight to hear. We can think of no pleasanter combination than to please the eye and the ear at one and the same time. The day is coming when this will be accomplished in all movie theatres. The attempts to synchronize pictures and music are as yet in their babyhood. But they are growing right lustily!

Think of Chopin's Nocturnes, seven of them. Those dreamy, rapturous strains that fill the soul with such delicious sadness that tears are often more welcome than laughter! Think of that little Schumann serenade—"Voice of Love;" of Mascagnis' "Siciliana;" of Thomas' "Mignon Overture;" of Saint Saens' "Swan;" of our own MacDowell's "To a Wild Rose," and the "Old Trysting Place;" of von Suppe's "Poet and Peasant;" of Wagner's "Prize Song" from the Meistersinger; and then of "Anitra's Dance" by the inimitable Grieg! This movie house has them all on its programs.

We are going to this little Movie House to hear the music. We hope there will be good movies. But the music will be worth to us many times the trifle of admission. We understand this movie-man is an obliging sort of fellow, too. When a little party is gotten up, he lets them select their own music. And he has his piano tuned once a month. It plays soft and plays loud. Fast and slow, and in between. In fact, it seems to play with feeling. The music is annotated by genuine masters; so it must be played right.

Of course we can't tell his name in these columns. That would sound like advertising. But we can always recognize merit and originality, and this we do cheerfully.

SATURDAY, JUNE 26, 1813

"The important article which follows, we received from our correspondent at Washington on Saturday last, and submitted it to several of the intimate friends of Gen. Moreau, who said it was not true, and offered to bet large sums that it was without foundation. On this account we suppressed it. Yesterday we saw a letter from a highly respectable gentleman of this city, now at Washington, which confirms it. To withhold it any longer, would, in our opinion, be a neglect of a duty we owe to the public. As the news is, we give it without comment.

Extract from a letter from Washington, dated June 16—(and confirmed by a second letter of the 17th).

"Mr. Astor has obtained permission of our, and the British governments, to send a ship to Russia, to take out and bring home a cargo, on condition that he takes out GENERAL MOREAU, who is to have command of the French prisoners and other French in Russia, which men he is to organize, and join BERNADOTTE against France."

Extract from President Davis's Baccalaureate Sermon, delivered in the Middlebury College.

"Even thou mighty Napoleon! The columbia of thine army, the pomp of thy victories, the homage of thy kingdoms, and thy millions slain in battles—what will they avail thee! Infinitely more happy will be the humblest victim of thy ambition, who fears his God, and dies in the faith of Jesus."

"Hamburg, April 12, 1813.

"The garrison left by the Viceroy (Eugene de Beauharnais, Napoleon's step-son) in Magdeburg, does not exceed 7,000, principally Westphalians—who hate the French. The French soi-disant Grand Army is said to be concentrating near Wurtzburg. This place is not more than 50 miles in advance of the Rhine.

"Natchez, May 20, 1813.

We had supposed the 2000 Tennessee Volunteers under Gen. Jackson, when they arrived here, were on their march to join the N. W. Army; but more recent information has undeceived us."

Extract from a letter from Maj. Gen. Lewis to the Secretary of War, dated:

"Niagara, June 14, 1813.

"At ten I put our army in motion on our return to this place. The SAVAGES and incorporated militia hung on our flanks throughout the march and picked up a few stragglers. On our retiring the British army advanced, and now occupies the ground we left.

I have the honor to be, etc.,
MORGAN LEWIS.

To Hon. John Armstrong,
Secretary of War.

"NORFOLK THREATENED.

"A letter from a mercantile house of Norfolk to their friends in this place, dated the 22d, and received yesterday, informs that the British squadron had landed 2000 men at Piney Point. It is stated that the enemy lost 2 barges and 50 men, who were taken in the attempt to effect a landing at Craney Island. It is stated that a considerable number of our militia stationed at NORFOLK are so sick as to be unfitted for service. The writer of the letter above mentioned entertains no apprehensions for the safety of NORFOLK.

(EDITOR SNOWDEN'S ONLY EDITORIAL IN THE GAZETTE, JUNE 26, 1813).

"ADVICE TO HUSBANDS.

"A very accomplished and celebrated French lady said to her husband after being unnecessarily absent from his family some days—'Depend upon it, when the head of a family is OUT OF PLACE, he has no right to look for happiness in the home!' There never was a more just observation made, and if husbands would always BE IN PLACE they would render not only themselves but all connected with their family, more happy."

IN MEMORIAM

SUTHARD—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear son, EARL, who departed this life two years ago today, June 27, 1919.

Two years have passed our hearts still sore,
As time goes on we miss you more,
Your loving smiles and tender face
No one can fill your vacant place.
He suffered much, he murmured not,
As we watched him day by day,
Until at last with broken hearts
We saw him pass away.
He left us in the youth of life,
With a heart full of hope and love,
And with God's faith and abiding grace,
May we meet him in heaven above

Neighbors Quarrel

Hot Weather May Have Been Responsible

Hot weather is believed by the police to have been responsible for some hot temper Saturday and Sunday. Two neighborly rows was the net result in the police court today. One man charged another with using profane language in the presence of women. This case was dismissed.

A woman charged another woman with calling vile names to the complainant. The complainant, however, denied some parts of the charge and the court's decision was a peace bond in the sum of $100 for each and the case thereupon was dismissed.

CITIZENS' BAND
(Communicated)

The Citizens' Band desires to announce that several times of late articles have appeared in various papers, where the Citizens' Band would furnish music of which the band knew nothing about until after the announcement had appeared in the papers.

The Citizens' Band always stands ready and willing at all times, when ever it is possible to play for any cause in the city, but we wish to request that the matter be presented to the band before any announcement is made in the newspaper.

The past week the various papers have advertised where the Citizens Band would furnish music at the Opera House at the Trinkle meeting tonight, and the matter was not submitted to the band until Friday night and owing to a large number of the members of the band being in Atlantic City with the Grotto Band and Drill Corps, it was necessary for the band to decline the invitation to furnish the music.

As stated above the band is ready at all times, whenever the members can be present, to furnish music for any organization or party, all we ask is that the matter be submitted to the band before any public announcement is made in the newspapers as for reasons stated above it might be necessary to decline invitation.

MATCH TRIPS WOMAN; HER WRIST BROKEN

Pittsburgh, June 27.—Mrs. Joseph Nelson, society woman of Fayette City, is in the Mercy Hospital here, recovering from a fractured wrist and other injuries suffered when she accidentally stepped on a match on a hardwood floor in the home of her sister, Mrs. Alexander Park, Fayette City.

The match skidded as Mrs. Nelson stepped on it and she was hurled backward. Throwing back her right arm in an effort to save herself, she fell on it, with the result that the bone snapped at the wrist.

SCHOONER ABLAZE AT SEA

Savannah, June 27.—The British steamer Bessie Dollar, Savannah to Vancouver, in a radio message picked up here last night, reported sighting an unidentified schooner on fire and abandoned in latitude 28.15 north; longitude 79.45 west. The vessel's rigging then was aflame and the message said the vessel would be a total loss. No mention was made of the crew.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Danville—The Virginia Society for the Common Good is sending out to its various branch organizations in Virginia digests of taxable values in Virginia. The step is believed by some to have a bearing on the question of taxes to be raised at the next legislative session. The digest received here gears on the Fifth Congressional district of Virginia and shows that the total of taxable values in the counties of Carroll, Franklin, Grayson, Halifax, Henry, Patrick, and Pittsylvania to be $118,934,88? or 7.3 per cent of the assessment of the state. The figures for Danville show that this city pays 35 per cent of the taxes paid in the fifth district, the total of taxable values here being $61,681,898. Pittsylvania's total is $29,290,321, while that of Halifax county is $20,779,285.

Adjutant-General Stern reported that there are a large number of young men from all sections of the State making application to attend the citizens' military trainig camp, which will be held at Camp Meade the month of August. In one small town there have been six applications filed.

According to statistics compiled by J. N. Hillman, secretary of the State Board of Education, Prince George County leads all of the other counties of the State in school standing. The rating of the counties is based on financial ad academic matters. Norfolk County is second in the rating. The ext ten couties, in the order named, are as follows: Arlington, Nansemond, James City, Henrico, Bath, Elizabeth City, Loudoun and Northampton.

Norfolk—High explosive bombs dropped into the waters of Tangier Sound, Chesapeake Bay, in a naval bombig tests, resulted in the destruction of millions of fish, in the opinion of F. Nash Bilisoly, commissioner og Fisheries in Virginia.

To make up a decrease in paid-up membership as compared with last year and to endeavor to enroll every ex-service man from the mountains to the sea, the Virginia department of the American Legion has staged a State-wide service and membership campaign, starting yesterday and ending July 29.

LAZIEST MAN' HAS CLAIM UP HELD BY COURT VERDICT

Duquoin, Ill., June 27.—In a court case, unique in the annals of Southern Illinois legal procedure, H. E. Mott has just won the verdict over H. N. Finney for the honor of being the laziest man in Saline county, in the Justice of the Peace Court at Harrisburg. Finney won out and Mott appealed the case.

Judge Stricklen presided over the second trial and subpoenaed a jury of women. After listening to the evidence the feminine jurors declared Mott was in a class by himself and gave him the verdict. Finney declared the evidence was "crooked," but will not appeal. The courtroom was jammed to capacity.

SPORTS

The Rosebuds Jr., defeated the Triangles of this city yesterday by a score of 9 to 7. The game was a fast and well played one. The feature of the game was when Fletcher tagged Blune when he tried to steal home and when L. Deaves got one trying to steal second The battery for the Rose Buds were (Buck Hart) Deavers and (Man-O War) Fletcher for Triangles O. Smith and Roy Blunt. The Rose Buds Jr.'s claim the championship of Alexandria for their size and are ready to play any 14 year old team who thinks they have a right to the championship. For games see Manager George Fletcher, 422 North Alfred street, Alexandria, Va.

The Triple A's seem to have been working in tough luck yesterday, losing a hard fought game to the Camp Humphrey's team in the fore noon by a score of 5 to 4, and again in the afternoon, to the Mayflower team by a score of 8 to 6. Quayle pitched a great game against the Mayflower team, but his field went back on him and did not come across with the support as they should have Both games were exceedingly hard fought and interesting from start to finish.

FIGHTERS TO SPLIT $500,000 PURSE

New York, June 27.—A flat purse of $500,000, rather than a percentage split will be the prize fought for at Jersey City on July 2, it was officially announced today by Tex Richard, promoter of the bout.

Of this amount Jack Dempsey, the world's heavyweight champion, will receive $300,000 win or lose, and Georges Carpentier, the French challenger, will take the remaining $200,000, win or lose.

The announcement denoted a reversion to the original contract, and replaces the percentage arrangement said to have been substituted before the scene of the battle was selected.

Under this arrangement Dempsey was to receive 36 per cent of the gross receipts and Carpentier 25 per cent.

Preliminary bouts at the contest for the world's heavyweight championship were announced today by Rickard. Before the throng in the crowded arena sees Dempsey, the champion, and Carpentier, the challenger, take their corners, they will witness six eight-round bouts.

Billy Miske, who was knocked out by Dempsey in three rounds last September, will meet Jack Renault, a Dempsey sparring partner, in one of the bouts Gene Tunney and Soldier Jones, heavyweights, also will meet.

The other bouts are: Babe Herman vs. Joe Metranga; Packey O'Gattey, of New York, vs. Frankie Burns, of Jersey City; Dick Griffin vs. Midget Smith, bantamweights, and Jackie Curtin vs. Mickey Delmont (or Willie Spencer.)

STARTS CLEAN-UP ON RIVER'S FRONT

Washington, D. C., June 27 — Unsightly wharves and the unkept appearance of the District's twenty seven miles of river front have drawn down the ire of the Board of Commissioners upon the owners.

Several days ago Commissioner James F. Oyster called the attention of Major C. H. Brown, assistant Engineer Commissioner in charge of buildings, to the appearance of docks, coal bins and shacks along the river front and requested him to prepare a list of owners of such property. Part of the property belongs to the Federal government, part to the District of Columbia, and the rest to individuals.

Major Brown's list will be presented to the board today and Commissioners Oyster and Kutz will immediately write letters to the property owners calling attention to the need of a thorough cleaning up of the wharves.

Trinkle Notes

Richmond, Va., June 27.—Reports from Senator Trinkle's campaign in the Valley during the past week, received at Headquarters here, indicate that he was entirely in the home of his friends. Although interrupted for two days by a death in his family, the northern section of the Valley was well covered by the candidate. He was greeted everywhere by large audiences who applauded especially his references to reforms in the administration of road buildings and his inquiries as to the meaning of "Back to the Constitution."

It was noticeable in the Valley, as elsewhere throughout the State that the women voters turned out in large numbers and indicated plainly their interest in Senator Trinkle's campaign.

The Carroll News, a Republican newspaper, states that if Mr. Tucker is nominated the Republican Party will have a much better chance of success in the November election.

Believing that the public now fully understands that the bill regulating the sale of intoxicants for medicinal purposes, voted for by Senator Trinkle, was in no sense the same bill Mr. Tucker charged him with voting for, the Trinkle Headquarters have deemed it unnecessary to direct any further attention to Mr. Tucker's misrepresentations in this connection.

The purpose of the bill, as Senator Trinkle voted for it and as it was passed by the Senate, is now covered by the Volstead Act of Congress.
